MASS. HS 85.2:Em 73

UMASS/AMHERST
312066 0282 4268 8

The Commonwealth of Massach
Executive Office of Human Services
Massachusetts Commission for the Deaf and
Hard of Hearing

PHILIP W. JOHNSTON
SECRETARY

BARBARA JEAN WOOD
COMMISSIONER

EMPLOYMENT: SUPERVISION OF DEAF AND HARD OF HEARING EMPLOYEES
A BIBLIOGRAPHY

Articles

"Hearing Impaired People in the Workplace." Jerome Schein, Ph.D., SHHH Journal, May/June 1987, Self Help for Hard of Hearing People, Bethesda, MD. pp. 9-12.

"Jobs for the Deaf." Susan Bernard, Business Week Careers, Oct. 1986, pp. 47-49.

Books

"Employment", Legal Rights of Hearing Impaired People. National Center for Law and the Deaf, Gallaudet University, Washington, DC, 1983, pp. 89-109.

Job Accommodations for Hearing Impaired Employees. Robert S. Menchel, National Technical Institute for the Deaf, Rochester, NY, Jan. 1981.

Pamphlets

"Annotated Bibliography of Literature Related to Employment of Deaf Persons." National Center for Employment of Deaf Persons, National Technical Institute for the Deaf, Rochester, NY.

"Deafness: A Guide for Employer and Employment Counselors." New Jersey Department of Labor, Office of Human Resources, Deaf Division, Jan. 1985.

"EPOC Supervisor's Manual: A Guide for Working with a Hearing Impaired Student." Experiential Programs Off Campus (EPOC), Gallaudet University, Washington, DC.

"The Hearing Impaired Employee: An Untapped Resource." U.S. Department of Education, Washington, DC.

"Interviewing A Deaf Job Applicant." Experiential Programs Off Campus (EPOC), Gallaudet University, Washington, DC.

"So You've Hired Someone with a Hearing Impairment." The President's Committee on Employment of the Handicapped, Washington, DC.

Suite 600 — 600 Washington Street — Boston, Massachusetts 02111 — TTY/V (617) 727-5106

83/62